

I am against the removal of regulations that limit the consolidation of ownership of media entities. I do not support the 'watering down' of our news and entertainment media that has been occurring and fear it will worsen with deregulation. This narrowing of our field of vision is negative for national and global health as it limits our access to differing opinions and stunts constructive growth as a nation.